

A CHRISTMAS CAROL AUDITIONS

Western Canada Theatre will be holding auditions for local actors to participate in our upcoming production of A CHRISTMAS CAROL.

We have multiple opportunities open to young people AGED 7 – 20 to join the cast. This is an opportunity to work with professional actors from across Canada on a new adaptation of A Christmas Carol created just for Western Canada Theatre. A Christmas Carol will be directed by Artistic Director James MacDonald.

Those selected for an audition will be provided a short scene from A Christmas Carol to prepare for the audition. You will need to be able to speak in an English accent. They will also be asked to sing a short Christmas carol of their choosing or an excerpt of another song they know well.

The time commitment extends on a part-time basis from November 6 – December 13, 2017. Rehearsals begin November 6, 2017 through until November 29. School-aged children will be required both after school and on weekends. The production runs at the Sagebrush Theatre from November 30 - December 13, 2017.

Interested young people should submit a photo and a short description of previous theatrical experience, as well as your age and height to: Heather Cant – heather@wctlive.ca. Contact Heather with any questions at 250-372-3216 Ext. 529.

August 30 Deadline for applications
September 9 & 10 Auditions

we will do our best to see all applicants for an audition, however depending on the volume of applications we receive that may not be possible within the allotted time on the audition weekend.*

PLEASE NOTE: there will be a large time commitment involved in preparing for the performance. Due to the size of the production, absences from rehearsals cannot be accommodated. Also, school-aged children will be required to miss some school (for the school matinee performances), but the time away from school will be kept to a minimum.
